

Third Poem of Love

by Roque Dalton

Whoever tells you our love is extraordinary because it was born of extraordinary circumstances tell them we're struggling precisely so that a love like ours (a love among comrades in combat) becomes the most ordinary and common almost the only love in El Salvador.